January 26, 2020

Greetings!

I would like to send best wishes to everyone celebrating the Lunar New Year across Indianapolis and beyond. For many, this is a time for family gatherings, time-honored traditions, and excitement for all that is to come in the Year of the Rat.

To the readers of Asian American Today and to the Hoosiers who celebrate this holiday, I thank you for your valuable contributions to the Indianapolis community. Our city is known as the Crossroads of America, and so it is most appropriate to recognize and appreciate the diverse cultures found here from across the nation and the globe.

In this Year of the Rat, I wish everyone the same optimism, energy, and kindness associated with the clever rat. May we all enjoy the hope and rejuvenation that comes with this Lunar New Year.

Sincerely,

Joe Hogsett
Mayor
City of Indianapolis

Greetings,

I would like to wish you and your entire community a happy Chinese New Year! May the Year of the Mouse be filled with wealth and prosperity.

Our state has been known for our Hoosier hospitality which includes welcoming people of all faiths and religions. It is important that Hoosiers continue to recognize, embrace and celebrate the many ways the Chinese community contributes to the State of Indiana each and every day.

As another year comes to a close, we can all reflect on our past and look forward to an even more prosperous future.

Janet and I would like to wish everyone a joyful and peaceful Chinese New Year!

Sincerely,

Eric Holcomb
