州长市长给华人拜年

January 22, 2023

Greetings!

I would like to send my best wishes to everyone celebrating the Lunar New Year across Indianapolis and beyond. For many, this is a time for family gatherings, time-honored traditions, and excitement for all that is to come. I wish Indy residents well as we welcome the Year of the Rabbit.

As we begin this New Year of hope, peace, and prosperity, the City of Indianapolis looks toward the Rabbit's wisdom and continues to work toward promoting equitable opportunities and fostering long-lasting relationships. May this year bring vigilance, wittiness, quick-mindedness, and ingeniousness to every opportunity you encounter.

We join with our residents who celebrate this holiday because Indianapolis is proud to be home to many unique and diverse Asian communities. Thank you for your valuable contributions to our community. To all Asian American Today readers, best wishes for a delightful, rejuvenating Lunar New Year.

Sincerely,

Joseph H. Hogsett
Mayor
City of Indianapolis

STATE OF INDIANA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
State House, Second Floor
Indianapolis, Indiana 46204

Eric J. Holcomb
Governor

Greetings,

As we step into the year of the Rabbit, I want to wish a Happy Chinese New Year to all who are celebrating. May this year bring many opportunities to Hoosiers across the state!

The Year of the Rabbit is a significant symbol for 2023. I hope as Hoosiers we can learn from what this year signifies – bringing kindness to our neighbors, confidence in ourselves, and strength to accomplish all things. These principles are crucial for Indiana to have a successful and memorable year, and each of you are a big part of that goal.

I am proud that Indiana has cultivated a community where we can celebrate together and learn about the diverse cultures around us. On behalf of Janet and myself, I am proud to wish the Asian American community a Happy Chinese New Year!

Sincerely,

Governor Eric Holcomb
